Get up! Do you want to die?!

Karito... is that the "hell" that haunts you?

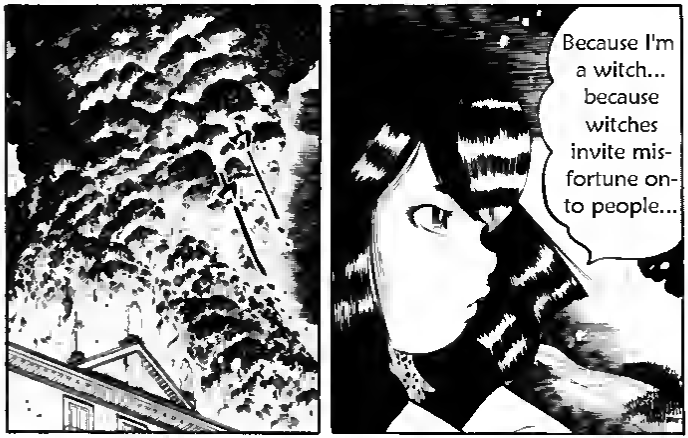
Oh, fine... right now, more than that, determining the cause of this incident is our first priority.

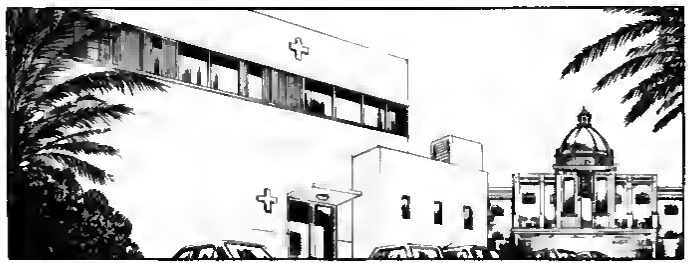
……

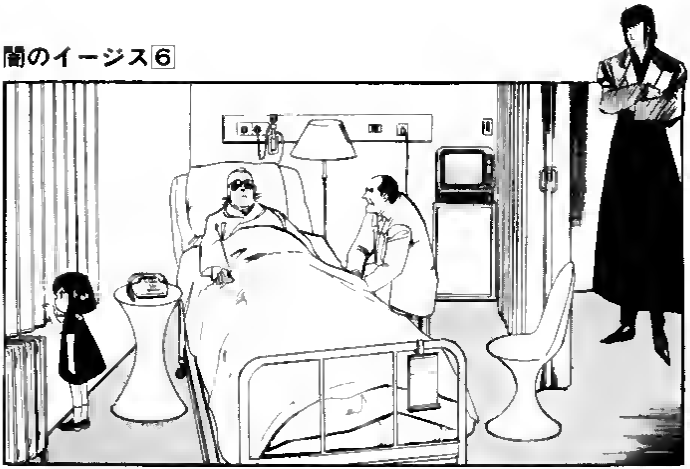
Can you really throw away revenge?

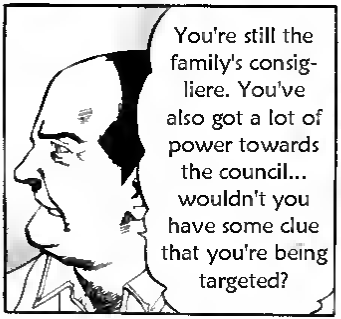
It's my fault.



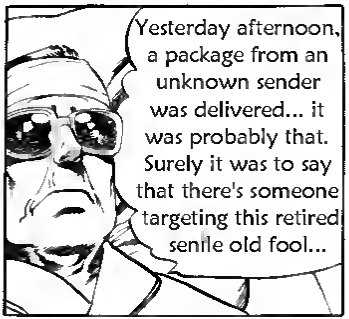
Because I'm a witch... because witches invite misfortune onto people...





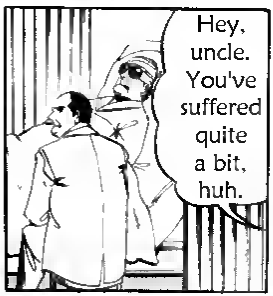


You're still the family's consigliere. You've also got a lot of power towards the council... wouldn't you have some clue that you're being targeted?

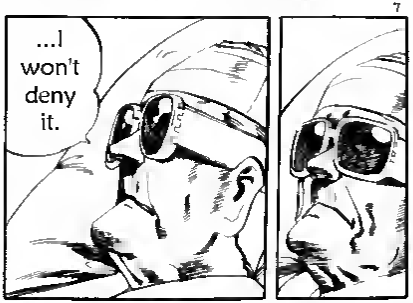


Yesterday afternoon, a package from an unknown sender was delivered... it was probably that. Surely it was to say that there's someone targeting this retired senile old fool...

7

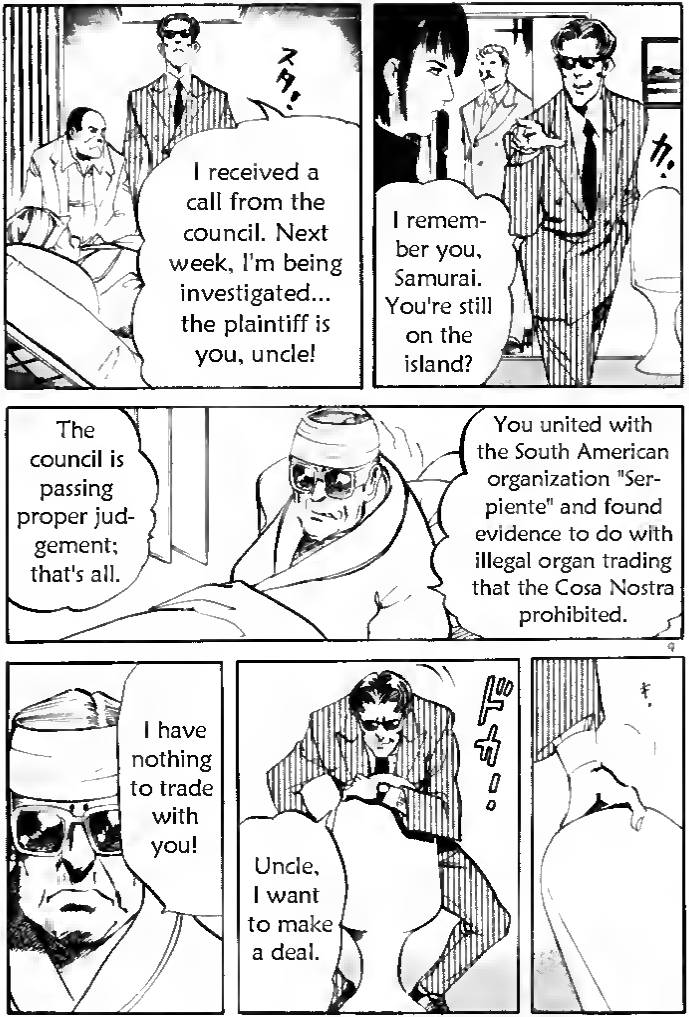


Hey, uncle. You've suffered quite a bit, huh.



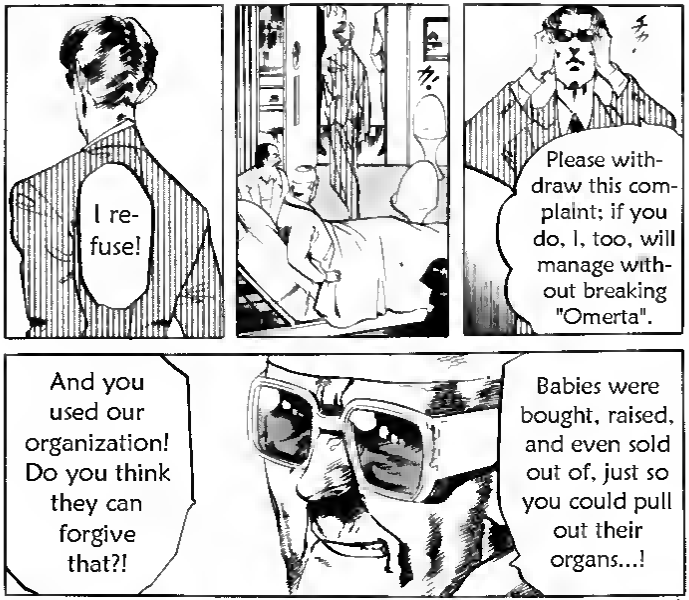
...I won't deny it.

Vino ...!
Why are you here?!
I heard that my uncle was injured and was worried as your nephew, so I came to wish you well... can't I do that?
The guy from back then ...!



スタ!
I received a call from the council. Next week, I'm being investigated... the plaintiff is you, uncle!
カ!
I remember you, Samurai. You're still on the island?
The council is passing proper judgement; that's all.
You united with the South American organization "Serpiente" and found evidence to do with illegal organ trading that the Cosa Nostra prohibited.
I have nothing to trade with you!
ドカ!
Uncle, I want to make a deal.
キ

The girl over there, Anna!
Yes you do ...
I had a lot of research done, and it's quite interesting. Amelia's daughter is a super child prodigy born as a result of a secret experiment.
No way ... you're ...
At any rate, if that were to become public, it would be a scandal of national scale, so, heheh...
I hear you're still in a frenzy, following the whereabouts of the group known as "Gazer", am I right?



I refuse!
Please withdraw this complaint; if you do, I, too, will manage without breaking "Omerta".
And you used our organization! Do you think they can forgive that?!
Babies were bought, raised, and even sold out of, just so you could pull out their organs...!
11
I told you I researched a lot, didn't I? You've been fooled this whole time. No way could that old man be the Cosa Nostra's guardian deity who was known as "Aegis"!
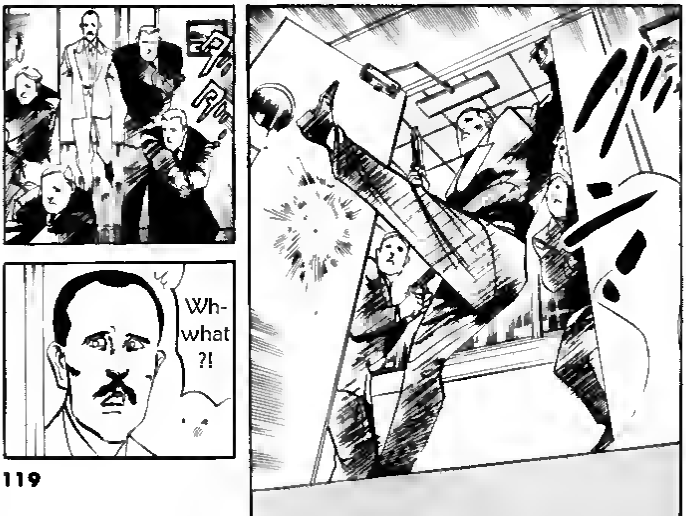
Are you able to disclose that much so confidently because that old man, Russo Arlacchi, is here?

TL "aigisu" again

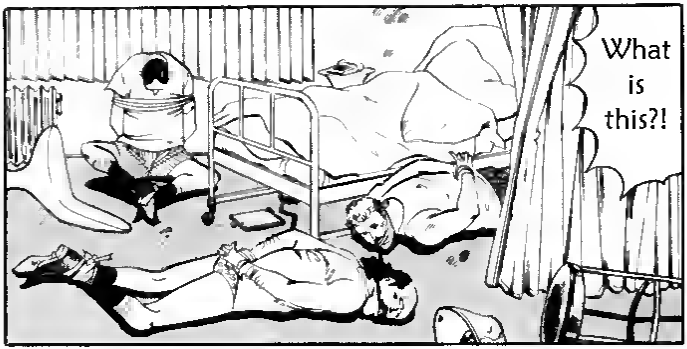
Is threatening small children with proof how your so-called "proud men" do things?
Wait!
If I said I did?
Are you provoking me?
You want a rematch sometime?
12
Tell me your name, Samurai!

Because I'll carve it into your tombstone for you!
Shall I have you carve that!?
Tate Karito "the protector Aegis"!

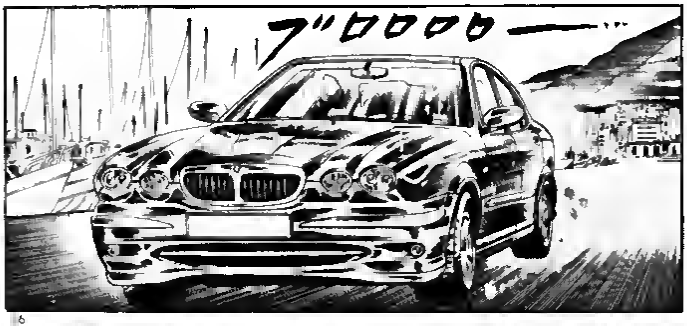
How is Mister Marchese?
15
and you can kill off your uncle without dirtying your hands.
I'm grateful. We'll recover the experimental body...



Wh-what ?!



What is this?!



ブロロロロ

Shut up, Vino. Don't open that dirty mouth without permission!
It's fine now, Uncle ...
17
Karito, you understand why? Vino said he was already informed on "Gazer"...

When I followed the eye movements under the sunglasses, you looked at your wristwatch three times when it was convenient.
It was proof you were being forced to wait for someone nearby.
Ever since I met you before, I felt you were a man who stood in absolute superiority and couldn't beat the pleasure of tormenting his prey...
No matter where we run to, it's useless.
I said it before; it's because I'm a witch ...
a "Siren" who pulls sailors in to their deaths just by singing...

Just because I exist, both Papa... and Mama... and even Grand-father, every-one...!

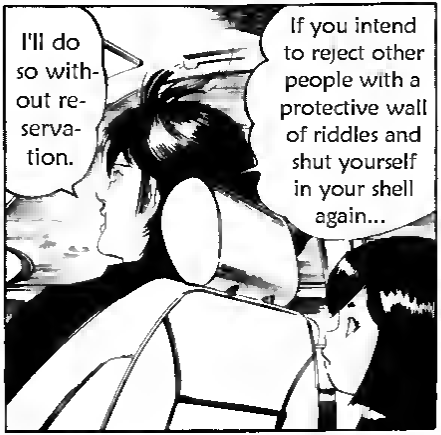
Shall I spank you again?

19

I had a very young son. He was killed... I couldn't protect him.



I'll do so with-out re-serva-tion.
If you intend to reject other people with a protective wall of riddles and shut yourself in your shell again...

if you have the will to find the answer to that "riddle" ...
If you're to face your own personal hell...
I became a person whose soul had died, then I came to this isand and found it...
the one and only way I could crawl up out from my hell.

20

I will become your "shield"!
